

Marin Independent Journal

Thursday, January 30, 2020

GIVING MARIN

A Community Partnership to Strengthen Nonprofits • Visit givingmarin.com

KIDS AND SENIORS: On Jan. 9, students, teachers, school principals and families from all over Marin gathered in Whistlestop's Jackson Café to recognize the finalists of Whistlestop's 2019 Holiday Card Contest. Elementary school students in grades kindergarten through five were invited to submit designs that highlight the holiday spirit of community, peace, love and giving, with the winning designs gracing Whistlestop's official holiday card. Pictured above are (back row, left to right, Catherine Nam, principal, Rancho Elementary School, Joe O'Hehir, CEO, Whistlestop, Mary Jane Burke, Marin County superintendent of schools, Molly Mundell-Bass, teacher, Tam Valley School, (middle row, left to right) Heath Hochanadel, Tam Valley School, contest winner Asher Abedin, Tam Valley School, Oliver Pool, Rancho Elementary School, (front row, left to right) Quinn Ostroff, Rancho Elementary School, Varnika Kamma, Rancho Elementary School, Venisha Potnuru, Rancho Elementary School, Maya Livingston, Old Mill School, Kosara Fackler, Old Mill School, Emily Vasquez, St. Vincent de Paul Elementary School, and Josie Robison, Glenwood Elementary School.

-Photo courtesy of Whistlestop