

THE NORTH BAY Business Journal

BUSINESS NEWS LEADERS SINCE 1987

■ SEPTEMBER 27, 2021

People

Beth Reizman has been chosen as board president of the Vivalon Board of Directors. Vivalon (formerly known as Whistlestop) has served as Marin County's hub for healthy aging for 67 years as the largest non-profit serving older adults and people with disabilities.

Beth Reizman

Prior to becoming board president, Reizman served on Vivalon's board as vice president for three years and as a board member for a total of six years. Former board president Dennis D. Ryan will remain on the Vivalon Board of Directors and Executive Committee as immediate past president after serving as president for seven years.

Along with the appointment of Reizman as Vivalon's board president, Stan Moore was named Vivalon's new board vice president and Cynthia Wuthmann was named new board secretary.

Prior to their new positions on the Vivalon Board of Directors, Moore served as a Vivalon board member for nearly two years and on the finance and audit committees for seven years, and Wuthmann served as a Vivalon board member for eight years, including as board secretary and fundraising/marketing committee chair.
