

Marin Independent Journal

Thursday, July 20, 2023

GIVING MARIN

A Community Partnership to Strengthen Nonprofits • Visit givingmarin.com

Program brings generations outside

On June 30, Vivalon, a San Rafael-based nonprofit that advances independence for older adults and people with disabilities, partnered with the Multicultural Center of Marin to provide a free intergenerational outing to China Camp State Park.

Thirty participants of all ages enjoyed a guided nature walk led in Spanish by Marco Berger from the Multicultural Center of Marin, followed by a picnic lunch overlooking San Pablo Bay. This outing is part of a series of intergenerational outings made possible by a grant from Marin County Parks that aims to expand access to the outdoors and connect communities to parks. For more information, visit vivalon.org.

Vivalon partners with the Multicultural Center of Marin to provide an intergenerational outing to China Camp State Park.

A grant from Marin County Parks expands access to the outdoors and parks.

Photos courtesy of Vivalon